10 DOUGLAS JAY,

11 Petitioner,

12 v.

13 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

14 Respondent.

CASE NO. C11-1851 MJP

ORDER RE: WAIVER OF
ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE

15
16 The Court, having received and reviewed the Government's Motion re: Waiver of 17 Attorney-Client Privilege (Dkt. No. 15) and Petitioner's response thereto (Dkt. No. 16), makes 18 the following finding:

19 Petitioner Douglas Jay, by filing a petition pursuant to 28 U.S. C. § 2255 in which he 20 alleged his former counsel rendered ineffective assistance by failing to (1) obtain and review "all
21 the necessary documents in the Government's possession concerning [Petitioner's] financial
22 records;" (2) hire an expert to refute the Government's claims of loss; and (3) adequately
23 investigate or prepare for sentencing, has waived his attorney-client privilege for the purpose of 24 litigating these specific issues. Therefore,

1 IT IS ORDERED that Petitioner's former counsel, Michael Nance, is authorized to
2 provide information concerning his verbal and written communications with the Petitioner,
3 including otherwise privileged legal communications, relating to Petitioner's allegations that his 4 former counsel rendered ineffective assistance by failing to (1) obtain and review "all the 5 necessary documents in the Government's possession concerning [Petitioner's] financial
6 records;" (2) hire an expert to refute the Government's claims of loss; and (3) adequately
7 investigate or prepare for sentencing, has waived his attorney-client privilege for the purpose of 8 litigating these specific issues. Mr. Nance is further authorized to provide to the Government 9 any documents and records relating to his communications with petitioner provided those 10 communications relate specifically to Petitioner's allegations.

11 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any information obtained from Mr. Nance shall be 12 used exclusively for the purpose of litigating Petitioner's allegations in this action and shall not 13 be admissible against Petitioner in any other proceeding, absent further order from this Court.

14
15 The clerk is ordered to provide copies of this order to all counsel.

16 Dated this 2nd day of March, 2012.
